Rialto Open House set for May 21

Caltrans will host an open house on May 21 for residents, business officials and others seeking information about upcoming construction of State Route 210 in Rialto. The open house will be held in the Fitzgerald Elementary Cafeteria from 5 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Representatives from Caltrans, SANBAG and the cities of Rialto and Fontana will be on hand to discuss bridge and freeway construction activities, the project schedule, detours, sound walls and safety. While the focus of the open house will be on freeway construction between Sierra Avenue in Fontana and Linden Avenue in Rialto, information also will be available about other segments of the project.

Visitors will receive project brochures and refrigerator magnets imprinted with the project helpline number, 1-866-HELP-210.

Fitzgerald Elementary is located at 2568 Terra Vista Drive in Rialto, between Palmetto and Alder avenues.

Did you know ...

... the Route 210 Rialto construction office will open May 21?

The new field office will house contracted staff from Fluor, LAN Engineering, RMA Group and David Evans & Associates and DMJM+Harris. It will allow staff to be in close proximity to the construction, which is planned to start this summer.

The 3,800 square foot office is located just west of Riverside Avenue at 198 W. Baseline. The main phone number is (909) 875-6029.

Route 210 to break ground in Rialto

Save the date: Thursday, June 19

Mark your calendar for June 19, the official ground breaking of State Route 210 in Rialto. The ceremony will be held at the corner of Locust and Casmalia avenues at 10 a.m.

The event will feature the Rialto Police Department Color Guard, a school presentation and remarks by city and transportation officials. Refreshments and give-aways will be provided, thanks to the support of business partners.

Invitations and maps will be mailed by late May. For more information, please call SANBAG at (909) 884-8276 or Caltrans at (909) 383-4631.
